FIGHTING SIDE BY SIDE WITH SERBS IN TRENCHES

Movement of British Troops Landed at Salonika Explained by the Report of Their Joining the Serbians—Probably Not True That the Allies Have Captured Strumitsa—Bulgarians Near Danube Have Made Progress and Serbians can Only Fight in Rear Guard Action—Bulgarians are Nearing Nish and Said to be Bombarding City's Outer Forts—British Renew Heavy Artillery Fire at the Dardanelles—Turkish Artillery Sank A French Submarine—King George is Improving—Bulgarian Regiment Annihilated.

[By Associated Press.]
London, Nov. 1.—The British troops, whose movements have been kept secret since they recently landed at Salonika, are now in the trenches with the Serbians and fighting the Bulgarians just across the frontier near Strumitsa, although the reports that the allies have captured Strumitsa probably are untrue.

It is along this portion of the front where the Bulgarians are likely to receive the first hard blow from their opponents.

From Uskup north to the Danube the Bulgarians have made such progress it seems impossible the Serbians can do more than fight in rear guard actions.

The Bulgarians claim steady advances at other points and are now menacing Nish.

The British are showing renewed activity in the Dardanelles and are now hammering the Turks with heavy artillery.

There are also recurrent reports of further bombardments of Bulgarian forts.

The recapture of Tahrir Hill by the Germans sums the only known result of the sudden and heavy fighting in Champagne.

[By Associated Press.]
Rome, Nov. 1.—The Third Bulgarian Regiment of Infantry was almost annihilated in a battle with the Serbians in Timok valley. The fighting in that valley was very desperate.

It is reported 20,000 Serbians have taken refuge in Romania.

Public buildings and the barracks at Vidin, Bulgaria, are filled with wounded.

NO CHANGE IN FRANCE.

[By Associated Press.]
Paris, Nov. 1.—Fighting continues in the vicinity of Butte de Tahure without material change in positions, according to the French statement this afternoon. The French captured 100 Germans. No other important actions occurred on the Western front.

MAN WAS LYNCHED IN COLUMBIA MISS.

Jack Hughes, Member of Well Known Family, Charged With Killing, Hanged by Mob.

[By Associated Press.]
Columbia, Miss., Nov. 1.—Jack Hughes, 36 years old, member of a prominent family in Washington Parish, La., adjoining this county, was taken from the county jail here early Monday by a party of masked men and hanged to a tree a short distance outside the city limits. Hughes was under arrest in connection with the killing of Larue Holloway, a well known young man of this place, near here, on the night of October 21.

Oslo Furberberry, the father, who occupied quarters on the second floor, was awakened about 1 o'clock Sunday morning by three masked men, who after forcing him to give up the key to the cell occupied by Hughes, bound him to his bed. The lynchers then forced Hughes to accompany them to the outskirts of the city, where he was hanged.

The father was found and released by members of his household several hours later.

Hughes is alleged to have fired on Holloway while the latter was engaged in a fight with another man. Hughes came to Columbia several months ago from Isabel, La., to accept a position as foreman for a lumber concern.

BIG BORDER BATTLE NOW IN PROGRESS

Villa's Columns Attacked by Outposts. Villa's Forces Number Ten Thousand.

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 1.—The struggle between Villa and Carranza forces for the possession of Agua Prieta, opposite Douglas, began this morning when the advancing main body of the Villa army came in contact with the defenders of the outposts. The Carrancistas opened fire and then fell back to the trench surrounding Agua Prieta. The clash occurred three miles south of the border.

Ten thousand Villistas moved under cover of the dense smelter smoke.

The United States troops are alert in the trenches on the American side to prevent the endangering of the lives of Americans if the fighting becomes serious in Agua Prieta.

United States army officers do not believe the Villa attack will be an earnest before tomorrow. They have notified Villa there must be no firing across the American line.
